4-H FAIR TO OPEN AT ARLINGTON NEXT WEEK

Grade Schools Set for September 15 Opening

Delay opening for completion new classrooms

The Arlington Heights Public schools will open Monday, September 15 at 9:00 a.m., the board of education announced this week. There will be complete sessions, both morning and afternoon, for all groups on the opening day. Some Cook County schools will open September 14, although a number of districts have announced their opening date as September 8 because of Labor Day's falling on the first day of September this year. According to the school calendar adopted by the Board of Education for this year, the Christmas vacation will be reduced from two full weeks to eight school days and the spring vacation from a full week to four Friday and Easter Monday. With school closing for the year on June 11, 1948, the usual 35 days of classes for children will be assured.

The decision not to open school a day after Labor Day was made in order to allow work on the additional classrooms at the south school to reach completion before school opens. Considerable renovation is under way, also, in the old structure, including the installation of new lighting fixtures, the location of oil rooms on the second floor, and the connection of all present classrooms with the central ventilation system. While the school system may not have the use of the auditorium-gymnasium and the cafeteria for the first weeks of school, it is felt that the classrooms in the old structure and the kindergarten and three classrooms on the east end of the building can be completed by September 15. While the Board of Education contracted for this addition about a year ago, the difficulties of securing sufficient workmen and the materials for the permanent type of construction which would match well with the existing structure have made progress slower than was expected.

Superintendent R. E. Clabaugh announced that the week of September 8 will be spent in a re-day planning conference by members of the staff, in accordance with the plan adopted by the Board of Education last spring. During that time plans will be laid for the year's work, the teaching staff, under the direction of the superintendent, and the building principals. New teachers will be thoroughly acquainted with the operation of the school system, and all teachers will have an opportunity, working both in groups and individually, to make careful plans for an effective school year. Parents of all children who will be new to this school system this year are urged to enroll them at the superintendent's office at the North school now, pupils entering kindergarten or first grade are required by state law to have a physical examination previous to their enrollment. Parents of such children are asked to contact the superintendent's office for the proper blanks to be used by the physician before taking the child for examination, and are asked to have this examination completed before the child is registered for school.

Commerce commission finds Geisen 'guilty'

Illinois Commerce Commission used an order July 30, four days after the close of the races at Arlington Park that Andrew Geisen had no authority to operate a motor bus for hire from Arlington Heights to Arlington Park race track. Action by the commission was started on June 25 on the basis of a complaint filed by Harvey Motor Coach which coach company operates under authority granted it by the commission in Ill. C. C. cases Nos. 33418 and 3445, respectively. The village of Arlington had sued Mr. Geisen a year ago for payment of a $5 fee. The order of the commission is as follows: "It is therefore ordered by the Illinois Commerce Commission at the said Andrew Geisen be and is hereby declared to be operating as a public utility carrier of passengers for hire by motor vehicle without having obtained a certificate of convenience and necessity therefor. On this commission in violation of such law and regulations."

New faculty member loses $50 on first visit to Arlington

Lois Magnuson, who has signed a contract to teach next year in Arlington Heights elementary schools, is hoping that the people of Arlington live up to the slogan, "A City of Good Neighbors."

While here last week she lost a wallet containing $50 in cash and two railroad return trip tickets. She called at a number of homes seeing rooms or may have lost it on the street. Information should be phoned to the school office, 536.

Women attend budget hearing at high school

Between fifteen and twenty women, no men, felt sufficiently interested in the budget hearing of Arlington Heights high school district Monday evening, to attend a meeting of the high school board. The visitors were not in an inquisitive mood and asked few questions. They offered no objections to the tentative budget, which was officially adopted.

NORMAL business before the board was the approval of bills totaling $14,684.75. Included among them was an item of $1,667 for the purchase of 15 new typewriters and $2,000 for attorney fees of Rieheimer and Rieheimer who handled the condemnation of property for the west athletic field. Bids will be opened September 8 for the sale of $75,000 bonds recently approved by the voters.

Tax receipts from the first collection in May has enabled the high school board to retire $100,000 of $125,000 in 1946 tax warrants.

MEMBERS of the high school board are furnished prior to each meeting, an agenda outlining the matters to be discussed at the current meeting, a list of bills to be approved and the minutes of the previous meeting.

The bleachers that will be installed on the athletic field include ten, each 16 feet long. Public Service Co. has assured the board that electric current will be ready for night games when school opens. The posts will all be erected this week.

MONDAY night was probably the first time in the history of the high school that spectators have attended an advertised budget hearing. "It is a good omen," said President Laurin. "The schools are of great importance to the community. Board members serve without salary and a little display of interest by the taxpayers should not be unusual."

by TOM HART

The harvest season is on full blast and once more the farmers of this area are producing ample proof that this region is the garden spot of America. Despite the cold, rainy and late spring which set the farmers back many weeks in their planting, fine grain crops are pouring out and the fields of this territory are yielding a veritable flood of golden grain.

A trip through some of the farming country northeast of Palatine the other afternoon with Bill Kehe disclosed that everyone was busy and all of the farmers were pleased with the results being obtained.

AT JOHN Kretz's farm just out of town John had his oat crop cut and shocked, but Ray Reese and his combine were whirling through a big wheat field and the golden grain was pouring into the hopper at the rate of close to 50 bushels per acre. Ray had his combine set low, and the wheat straw was billowing out of that machine looked like it was coming out of the blower of a regular threshing machine.

John intends to bail that straw and he'll have a fine crop to market, besides a bumper wheat crop. He had a strange

Rev. Behrens accepts call for Faith Lutheran church

Pastor Edgar H. Behrens of Philadelphia has accepted the call to the pastorate of the newly organized Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church of Arlington Heights.

Pastor Behrens was born in Crete, Illinois, August 1, 1900. He attended both Fort Wayne and St. Louis seminaries and was extensive mission ETAOINSprid graduated in 1924. He then did extensive mission work in northwestern Canada. In 1927 he accepted a call to St. John's Lutheran church in Philadelphia, which congregation he has served continuously to the present time.

During his ministry in Philadelphia, Pastor Behrens fostered five successful mission churches. For eleven years he has been Visitor in his district, while also serving as chairman of the eastern conference of the English district. He was on the ministerial education committee, secretary of the amalgamation committee, and since 1934 has been dean of the eastern district's Walther League camp.

Honest! They were married 4 years ago

John L. Selle, and Mrs. Selle, R. R. 1, Arlington Heights had expected to celebrate Jack's birthday Wednesday with an Illinois church wedding. They had previously been married in a western state. "It was no trial marriage," says Jack "and we are so thoroughly convinced that our marriage is going to stick that we decided a long time ago to add to the bounds that bind us with an orthodox wedding in a Catholic church."

"When marriage license No. 2 was secured recently in Chicago, we never gave a thought that the marriage editor of the Arlington Heights Herald would receive report of the license as we had clearly marked on our license application that it was a re-marriage."

Mr. and Mrs. Selle had been receiving a lot of kidding from their friends who now knowing the real facts are doubling their best wishes for a happy married life.

Visiting and local firemen honor retiring chief Jahn

Arlington Heights fieldhouse was the scene Saturday night of a veritable "king for a day." The "king" was modest R. H. Jahn, retiring Arlington Heights fire chief who was showered with some fine gifts from the local department, the municipality and the Palatine and Mount Prospect departments.

"Dick" said he was completely flabbergasted and could not understand why so much honor and attention was showered on him after "only 39 years on the fire department and seven years as its chief."

Things began coming Dick's way at a dinner served at the Lutheran school hall, one of those perfect dinners that those ladies know so well how to serve. Versatile Alex Lips, himself an ex-fireman, acting as toastmaster, welcomed Mr. Jahn to the rocking chair squad of retired firemen.

PRECEDING the presentation of a gift of fishing equipment, Mr. Lips said a lot of nice things about Dick. They were not mere words. The retiring chief had earned them all, in the opinion of the diners who included the official municipal family, members of the department, former firemen and the chiefs of the two neighboring towns, and their wives.

"MR. JAHN always took his job seriously, whether one of the privates of thirty years ago or as chief the past few years," stated the toastmaster. "Among extra curricular services he gave to the public were the organization of the women's auxiliary which had the hot coffee ready in the club rooms when the boys returned from winter fires, the fire prevention program through the schools each October, the organization of the fire wardens during the war, and the establishment of the auxiliary firemen. The fire prevention measures," continued Mr. Lips, "have paid off in a big financial way to all property owners because of the reduced premium rating that the village enjoys."

IN ACCEPTING the gift of a large, suitably engraved box of fishing tackle and a fishing rod, Mr. Jahn admitted that the life of a fireman is tough sometimes, but claimed that he has enjoyed every hour of the fire fighting service that he has given the town during the past 39 years. "I seemed to always come out on top," said the chief, who thanked Mayor Goedke for the support he had given the department, never questioning their requests for new fire hose and never interfering in the affairs of the local department. (Continued on page 2)

Six years and we are still waiting

A reader of this paper brought to the attention of the editor this week a copy of Arlington Heights Herald under date of September 5, 1941. The leading story in that issue is that Mayor Goedke had appointed a committee to interview the congressman of the district relative to the erection of a postoffice building in Arlington.

Alderman Franke and Attorney Thal came back with an encouraging report, states the story.

That was six years ago.

It's official: Carl Baylor now owner of Lattof store

Mr. Carl W. Baylor is now the owner of the Home and Auto Supplies Store known as "Lattof's". In announcing the sale, Mr. Lattof stated that the present tax structure leaves no incentive for additional effort and that a business of this type could not be run by remote control. The buildings will remain the property of the Lattofs.

Mr. Baylor is well known in this area. For the past nine years, he has been superintendent of Elementary Schools at Libertyville. Prior to that, he held a similar position in Grayslake for a period of five years.

Mr. Baylor has also been active in civic affairs. He has served Libertyville as Chairman of the community war fund, scrap control, and Boy Scouts and as a member of the Committee on war bond drives. He served the Lions club of Libertyville in various capacities and was its President in 1941-42. He filled the position of Secretary-Treasurer of District 1-F of Lions International in 1940-41, during which period Mr. Lattof was Deputy-Governor of the District.

Mr. Baylor is a graduate of the University of Illinois from which he holds the degrees of B.A. and M.A. He has also taken post graduate work at Northwestern University. He is married and has a son aged 12. The Bayers plan to make Arlington Heights their home.

State highway to investigate 'hidden corner'

Illinois State Highway Department has promised Paddock Publications that it will find out why there is no intersection on Route 14 protecting Wilke road. Also that it will look into other charges made by this paper relative to the dangerous condition at that intersection.

The engineering department of the Northwestern railroad has also promised to investigate the safety hazards at that intersection, caused by the storage of railroad ties and the wire fence. Two persons have met death at this intersection.

Southsiders object to airplane noise

Attorney Thal was asked Monday by Arlington Heights village board if legal measures can be taken to keep the noises of airplanes away from the south side of the village. Thal will report at the next meeting of the board.

"If the operation of the Arlington field is a business venture by private owners, some way should be found to prevent its operation from becoming a nuisance," said Alderman Luehring.

Elk Grove farm has corn 9 ft., 4 in.

Walter Lang, Elk Grove farmer, has proof on a tract of corn land that his township can raise good corn as well as good vegetables. He has corn that measured 9 feet, 4 inches high Tuesday night, A Chicago newspaper carried a front page picture in its Tuesday edition heralding corn 8 feet, 3 inches high.

Mr. Lang planted his corn May 20, which is the end of the corn planting season in a normal year. He predicts that his yield will be above that of the average yr. His patch is at the rear of Elk Grove church.

North Cook County 4-H Fair and Fall Festival will be held next week, Friday and Saturday, at Recreation Park, Arlington Heights. The dates are August 22 and 23.

"To furnish the public two days of entertainment, information and diversion built around the end of the year's work of 400 4-H North Cook County boys and girls has been the object of the Fair Committee," says Herman Hinz, General Chairman.

Softball playoffs start tonight

Tonite, Thursday, August 15, will mark the opening game of the play-offs for the league championship of the Arlington Heights Softball League. Rose-Lo, pride of Arlington Heights and winners of the first round, will face Palatine's best, playing under the Haseman Trucking Company colors.

The series will be the best two out of three with the remaining games being played Sunday August 17, and Wednesday August 20. All games will commence at 6:45 sharp due to the shortness of daylight during this period of the evening. Games will be played at Arlington Heights Recreation park at the softball diamond. For further details consult sport section.

Order plans for northside pump and alterations

Arlington Heights village board met Monday evening in an adjourned session, completing business of a week earlier when the board adjourned early on account of the heat. The heat was also still on hand this week.

Village engineer was ordered to prepare plans and specifications for a new pump for north side well and building alterations to accommodate the pump. The engineers presented a detailed report of the recent testing made of that well.

ACME Roofing Co. was awarded contract for roof repairs on the municipal building, totaling $660.

An ordinance was passed raising the salary of the health officer from $150 annually to $200. Chas. Rehfeldt, 933 N. Patton ave., objected to the practice of developers of Arlington Ridge omitting road improvements before lots not controlled by them. Board members did not appear disposed to ask the developer to improve property he does not own but did order that suitable barricades be erected.

The pavement on Patton will be completed to the Northwest Highway.

An outdoor program in a lighter vein will begin at 8:00 p. m. on the platform in the park. The public is invited to come earlier because all displays will be open and lighted. The merchants tent will have displays of new and useful merchandise now appearing both for the home and farm. WLS Radio Artists will open the program. This evening and Saturday afternoon Polly Jenkins and her Pals with Uncle Dan and Uncle Tom Cowine, who drives poultry and livestock crazy with his National Barn Dance imitations comprise the headline features for both days.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 23 will have Radio Entertainment beginning shortly after noon. General admission, except for the dance, will be free by the courtesy of the advertisers in "The Buyer's Guide" sent to the farmers in North Cook, and the merchant exhibitors. The place is the park in Arlington Heights where will be seen the 4-H flag flying under the Stars and Stripes.

Nat'l cooking expert to demonstrate at 4-H fair

Timely, interesting and practical information concerning the preparation of meat for the table, the nutritive value of meat, and how to use the available meat supplies to the best possible advantage will be featured in a meat cookery lecture-demonstration sponsored by 4-H Fair and Fall Festival, which will be presented at the field house in Arlington Heights, Saturday, August 23, at 2 p.m.

In charge of this program will be Miss Bines, field home economist of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, an educational and research organization which represents the entire livestock and meat industry.

Miss Bines will present a varied program. Drawing upon the results of meat cookery studies initiated by the Board and conducted by colleges, universities and the United States Department of Agriculture, she will demonstrate the preparation of various meat cuts by the methods best suited to those cuts—roasting, broiling, panbroiling, braising, simmering and frying.

She will stress the value of low temperature meat cookery in holding down meat shrinkage, thus providing more meat servings and a more tender, juicier and more palatable meat dish than when a high temperature is used.

Other topics covered in the program by the Board's field home economist will be simple and attractive ways to serve meat, foods to serve with various meat dishes, building meals around meat, short cuts in food preparation, attractive ways for garnishing the meat dish, and the care of meat in the home.

"WE FIGURE 200 seats can be provided 4-H girls, and women. The first 200 who ask for admission tickets at the Farm Bureau will get a seat when the doors open at 1:30 p.m. at no cost. At 1:50 p.m. the general public will be admitted. Preceding Miss Bines will be a program by WLS radio entertainers," states the 4-H Fair committee.

Arlington druggist enjoys a vacation as a farm laborer

Art Peterson, employed at the Sieburg drug store, Arlington Heights, says he will never again feel sorry for a farmer. He went to the Ray Hotopp farm at Fox Lake, Wis., for his vacation. He spent it on a binder and milking cows just to show Ray that a white collar fellow is as good as any farmer. Art says that it was one of the best vacations he has ever spent. When the day's work was done he sat on the porch and gazed at some of the finest scenery in the world.

Ray was formerly a resident of Arlington Heights, being employed by Fessler and Meyer dairies.

Camera enthusiasts form own club

Evidently the recent heat wave does not affect the local photographic enthusiasts because the Arlington Heights Camera Club continues to hold their regular twice monthly meetings throughout the summer. Last week, August 6, only two members, away on vacations, were missing from the roll call.

Acting president Taylor Lewis was welcomed back after a six weeks' trip with his family through the Pacific Northwest and California. To add to the joys of his return to this territory his photographic entry on the assignment "Human Interest" was adjudged the prize winning print of the evening. Naturally the members are looking forward to more winners from Lewis' photographs taken during his trip.

Each club meeting held the first and third Wednesdays of each month, sees a print competition on a specific prearranged subject assignment. Before any criticism is made, a vote is taken to determine the best picture of the subject. Afterward all prints are discussed and suggestions are made for their improvement. In this way the less experienced members receive

Farmers approve organization of drainage district

The dreams of 30 or more years ago for the formation of a drainage district along Salt Creek, Palatine township, appear to be on their way to realization as result of a meeting held Wednesday morning at the Bartlett Farm, northeast of Palatine.

The meeting was called by a committee authorized several months ago when a few of the farm owners, stung by the many acres of flooded land started the movement. Serving on that committee were Mr. Bartlett, Wm. Hinz, Wm. Brockman and Emil Straub. They issued a call last week for owners along the two branches of Salt Creek to meet Wednesday.

Carter Jenkins, former chief engineer of Illinois department of water ways and who specializes in drainage work, was authorized to draft preliminary plans that will substantiate the allegations in a petition for creation of the district. Attorney A. F. Wild will present the petition at the fall opening of the courts.

It is probable that the district will extend nine miles to cover both branches of the creek that has its beginnings in the Deer Grove Forest Preserve and near Kitty Korner and meet in the southern end of the township, emptying into a district under the control of Elk Grove drainage district. In DuPage county a number of the larger villages use the same creek for sewage.

Northbrook leads home building during July

New building given permits in July amounted to $29,200,933, running far ahead of all other months of this year and exceeding July, 1946, by more than $9,000,000. The July total a year ago was $20,035,597 and June of this year was $22,077,431.

The total for July, $29,200,933, made this the best month since 1942, the year of greatest war plant building, with the exception of March of last year which somehow got all out of line with a total of $47,189,139.

Home building in July, including both individual homes and apartments, made a fine showing, with a total of 2,315 units and an estimated valuation amounting to $17,471,895. This may be compared with 1,848 units having a valuation of $12,470,139 for July of last year; and 1,810 units, $14,019,680 for June of this year.

Home building with number of permits and values for towns of this area:

Arlington Heights, 17, $187,500.
Bensenville, 6, $44,600.
Des Plaines, 10, $101,700.
Glenview, 10, $129,100.
Mt. Prospect, 11, $145,500.
Northbrook, 36, $384,500.
Palatine, 12, $112,100.

Honor fire chief

"ARLINGTON Heights fire department has certain traditions that have been followed since its organization in 1894," John said, "chief of which is service to the public with sacrifice to oneself if necessary. The tradition has continued through the years because members have been loyal to their officers and unquestionably followed orders issued at fires."

In behalf of his wife, Mr. Jahn thanked the members of the women's auxiliary for the orchid that had been presented to her and expressed his appreciation of the loyalty that had been given to him by the members of the department, Chief Skoog and the police department, the press and others whose support has added to the efficiency of the local department.

Friendship and the cooperative spirit existing through the years between Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Palatine has increased the protective service that any one of the towns has been able to provide their respective communities, Mr. Jahn termed as "mighty fine."

In closing his talk he pointed out that the equipment is in A-1 shape and the local department is in fine position to give the service that is needed in this growing community.

INTRODUCING the new chief, the toastmaster said, "I have learned that if you want a job well done, call upon a busy man. We have such a man in the person of Elroy Winkelman, who is now the head of the department. Everybody knows that there is no busier man in Arlington than Elroy, who started his business career as a butcher boy, then a plumber's apprentice, and finally finding his niche in the automotive field."

"It is a big order to live up to the reputation of Chief Jahn, who has done such a fine job," replied Mr. Winkelman, "but I know that I am speaking for all the men of the department when I say that we will give our best efforts to protect life and property in this city and with the full cooperation of all the firemen, we can have, as we have had for over 50 years, a fire department of which the village can be proud."

"I wish Richard Jahn good health, happiness and good fishing and invite him to give us a hand when the whistle blows. I know that you can't retire an old fire horse over night."

THE RECEPTION, following the dinner in the field house was the setting for the awarding of the additional gifts. As Mr. and Mrs. Jahn entered the auditorium, they were greeted by the Palatine German band gathered around a large umbrella canopy table and chairs.

Realtors' anniversary celebration last week

Ringworm of the scalp is an infection of childhood — and probably contracted more often in the summer when children are bareheaded.

First evidence of the disease is a small bald spot that will enlarge gradually if the fungus infection is not treated. Since there are various types of fungi, diagnosis is the first step in controlling the indigestion.

figured he could combine it in its tumbled condition better than he could cut it.

From Emi's place we paid Otto Bittner a visit and like the rest of the fellows Otto was out in the field where his son was guiding a combine around a big oat field. It kept Otto busy chasing the combine with his truck so that they could unload the hopper when it was full. That hopper filled up mighty fast from that golden stream of grain that Otto said would run 30 bushels per acre.

THE STORM had lodged a lot of the field where they were working, but the combine was picking it up in fine style. Across the road a field of oats was standing straight and tall, and Otto said that they were the Clinton brand.

"Almost need two trucks to keep up with the combine," Otto said, "that's what happens when you raise too much stuff."

"While some of you fellows holler about raising so much, a lot of folks are hollering that they can't raise anything," we remarked.

"Yes," said Otto, "people are never satisfied. When some want rain, others want it dry. Never satisfied, but the one thing that counts is that if we can keep our health the rest doesn't matter." In that statement farmer Otto told a great truth and exhibited a great philosophy.

After leaving Otto's place we inspected some great corn and alfalfa fields and came across Ray Holtzner driving a huge combine around a big oat field on a job he started after one o'clock, and which he said he'd finish by seven o'clock if it didn't get too damp.

ON EVERY farm in every direction the farmers were busy in the harvest fields and the reports coming in from all directions are all alike—fine yields of small grain and the prospects good for a corn crop with six weeks more of good weather. The winter wheat yield this year is exceptionally heavy and this area not noted as wheat growing country is producing some yields that will top the yields in some of the well known wheat growing areas.

Yes, the fields in this area are turning out a veritable flood of golden grain. The farmers are once more proving to themselves and to everyone else that this region, despite occasional setbacks and late seasons, is af-

Cardinal Strich to dedicate St. Mary's school, Buffalo Grove

Cardinal Strich, of Chicago, will officially dedicate the new St. Mary's school, Buffalo Grove, Sunday, October 5, 1947. The dedication at 10 o'clock will be followed by a Solemn High Mass celebrated by the Rev. Geo. Ballweber, local pastor.

It was 101 years ago that the first holy mass is said to have been held in a home along Buffalo Creek, near the present site of St. Mary's church. During the pioneer days a Catholic priest, traveling on horse back from Morton Grove to McHenry on the McHenry road, discovered a few Catholic families in the Buffalo Grove area. He made arrangements to hold a mass the following Sunday. The struggling pioneers founded St. Mary's parish. It has become one of the strongest in Lake County.

Honor the Cardinal

The parishioners are planning an honor guest dinner with the Cardinal, following the dedication ceremony. Provision will be made for 250 guests. Tickets will be available to members and friends of the parish at $10 a plate. After September 15 reservations for any unsold tickets can be made with Mrs. Raymond Weidner, Wheeling 67-J-1 or Mrs. Clara Nichol, Arlington Heights 7002-W.

The visit of Cardinal Strich to Buffalo Grove is of such importance that a souvenir booklet giving the history of the congregation with pictures, etc. is to be issued. Business men and friends who desire to be included therein are asked to make reservations as soon as possible.

Arlington Heights business houses can make such reservation at the Millay ice cream shop, 3 West Davis. Reservations can also be made with Rev. Geo. Ballweber, Prairie View, Route 1, or phone Wheeling 66-W-2.

Building is a model of modern construction

St. Mary's congregation, Buffalo Grove, has recently completed one of the most modern 4-room school buildings to be found in the Chicago metropolitan area. Built of Lannon stone, it is attractive and pleasing to the eye. Visitors wonder how such a small community can build such a building. Its cost is $90,000, only half of which amount remains unpaid. Finishing touches on the interior are now being made. Arlington Seating Co. recently equipped one room with the latest in modern moveable school seating equipment; others are to follow.

Fluorescent lights have been installed throughout the building. Wardrobes are of the automatic door type in the rear of each room. Asphalt tile is used on all floors. All the walls of the hallways, toilets, class rooms are lined with mercuric tile, which is easy to wash and adds to the sanitary condition of the building.

The main floor of the building will be utilized exclusively for school purposes under the direction of Sister M. Olga of the school sisters of St. Francis, St. Joseph Convent, Milwaukee, Wis. The basement, with adjoining hall is designed for community affairs. As much care has been spent in its design and construction as in the school itself.

The supper served by St. Mary's parish are attended by hundreds of people at a time and it was necessary to provide kitchens, cooking equipment and dining room to handle large crowds.

The kitchen at St. Mary's is probably larger than any other northwest of Chicago. There are two six-pan steam tables secured from navy surplus. Also 44 gas plates (stoves). These are needed for amount of food being served at one of the suppers. In July the dinner guests consumed three steers and three hundred chickens.

There is separate salad kitchen and a score or more of cupboards filled with dishes and utensils. The hall, which is 45 x 90, can accommodate 300 diners at a setting. It will be in demand for weddings, parties and social events. A stage across one end is 45 ft. wide and 18 ft. deep.

All events will not be large affairs and a club room is being outfitted in knotty pine. Provision is made for store rooms.

The furnace is stoker fired. There are many entrances and the building could be emptied in a few minutes. It is fire proof construction throughout.

The building would be a credit to any exclusive community. The greater part of the constituents of St. Mary's are farmers. The erection of such a school and community building by them shows their progressiveness.

The roof of the hall which is now one story is so constructed that a gymnasium can later be erected as a second floor. The Rev. Geo. Ballweber, under whose direction the building program was realized, is now residing in the upper floor of the former school house. The Sisters have taken over the former rectory to be adjacent to the new school.

News of VFW Post 981

A loan of approximately $15,000,000 has been approved by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation of Chicago for the Veterans of Foreign Wars "Housing Now" campaign. Commander Greshner of the Arlington Hts. post says that this loan will not only speed up production of homes for veterans, but also will open jobs for 7,000 or more persons, many of them ex-servicemen.

The RFC loan was made to the company for conversion of the Curtiss-Wright plant in Columbus, Ohio, to a mass production factory to turn out machine-made homes. Production in the plant is slated to get underway some time late this year. By 1948 the company expects to hit an annual production rate of 30,000 homes.

The Post's annual picnic is scheduled for September 7. It will be held in the afternoon and evening at the Elk Grove forest preserve and is open to the public. More details will be announced at a later date in this paper.

Mt. Prospect VFW Post will sponsor a bike race on the afternoon of September 7. The bike race will be over a 60 mile course and the Arlington Hts. Post is awarding the second place trophy for this event. September 1 VFW Post 981 will celebrate its 25th anniversary and all past commanders of the post will be honored at this time. Details will be announced later.

August 24 Post 981 will meet at the Arlington Heights village hall at 1 p. m. from where they will go to Crystal Lake to attend their VFW parade and festival. Post 981's firing squad, gun drill squad, and color guard will take part in this program. Other members are also urged to attend.

A surprise miscellaneous bridal shower was bestowed upon Miss Jean Kolze of Arlington Heights by Mrs. Erna Finke Tuesday evening. About 25 guests, who were seated amidst yellow and blue decorations, watched the bride-to-be open many lovely gifts.

Miss Kolze will become the bride of Harvey Rasmussen of Arlington Heights on September 20.

Receives degree

Ruth Karstens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Karstens, Arlington Heights, received the bachelor's degree in secretarial science at the 84th commencement exercises of Bryant College, Providence, R. I., on August 8. The exercises were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Karstens, Esther, and George R. Busse.

Miss Karstens was the recipient of the Bryant typing scholarship award and was presented with a gold medal which is given to the graduate of the school of secretarial science who throughout the course has maintained the highest level of achievement in typewriting, has reached and sustained an outstanding rate of speed in that skill.

Miss Karstens served as co-editor of the school yearbook, the "Ledger," was editorial director of the school paper, the "Archway," served as treasurer of Sigma Iota Beta sorority, and was a member of the girls' glee club, bowling and basketball teams.

Presenting the younger generation

Starting this week's hit parade of interesting youngsters are Freddie and Tommie Lauterburg, sons of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Lauterburg of 16 S. State rd., Arlington Heights. Both boys have brown hair. Freddie has brown eyes, too, but Tommie has blue. Freddie is 4 years old, while Tommie is 8 months. The boys in that family can really smile. The little girl with the puzzled look on her face is Judith Annette Koenig, 4 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Koenig, 10 E. McDonald rd., Prospect Heights. Judith's hair is brown, with eyes to match. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Appel of 58 S. Plum Grove rd., Palatine, are the proud parents of the next young miss, Carol Ann Appel. Ten months old Carol Ann has hazel eyes and brown hair. Little James Froemling is on the far right. This 4 months old boy has blue eyes and brown hair. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Froemling, 20 So. Maple, Mt. Prospect.

Flies to Denmark

Last week Monday James Jensen, who makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. Richard Boeger, in Arlington Heights, flew to Denmark to visit his 80 year old sister. Mr. Jensen is 74 and hadn't been back to his birthplace for 56 years.

Mrs. Boeger has received a letter from him saying he had a fine trip over and is enjoying his visit very much. Mr. Jensen plans to be gone two months and will fly back home October 1.

Baby baptized

Virginia Lee Stolley was christened Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stolley of Arlington Heights. Rev. L. V. Stephan performed the ceremony at 3:00 p.m. Miss Gertrude Hinz and Mrs. Anthony Bodor were sponsors. Following the ceremony a supper was served for the immediate family.

Stork shower

Pink and white prevailed in the decorations at the stork shower given August 2 in honor of Margaret Pink Peterson of Lake Zurich by Dorothy Seip at the home of Maurice Seip in Palatine. Center of attraction was the table centerpiece, a large cradle filled with baby's toilet articles. After the guests had enjoyed playing airplane bunco, a luncheon of sandwiches, cup cakes, apple Kuchen and a large decorated cake was served.

Out-of-town guests who attended the shower were Mary Williams of Racine, Walter and Alice Carberry of Chicago, Alice Mae Rosdale of Des Plaines, and Minnie Fink of Lake Zurich.

OES notes

The Past Worthy Matrons Club of the Eastern Star will hold a 6:30 fireplace supper August 21, with Lillian Wolf and Grace Turk acting as co-hostesses. The supper will be held in the yard of the Lillian Wolf home in Mt. Prospect.

Former Arlington resident sponsors silversmith school

G. H. Nieneyer, a native of Arlington Heights, opened the Silversmiths' Working Conference at the Rhode Island School of Design in Providence on Monday, August 4. This conference, the first of its kind in the United States, is sponsored by Handy and Harman, 82 Fulton Street, refiners and dealers in precious metal, of which firm Mr. Nieneyer is president.

Because of the experimental nature and intensive work of the conference, the attendance is limited to twelve participants. They are teachers of silversmithing and jewelry making in universities, teachers colleges and art schools in different sections of the United States. The conference, which will extend through August 29, will be headed by William Bennett, well known British master craftsman in precious metals and teacher, who flew from England to conduct it.

During the conference there will be six to seven hours daily of actual work in raising and forging. The participants will be required to choose their own projects and create their own designs. The purpose of the conference is both to increase the technical knowledge of those attending and to stimulate experimentation in design and creative thinking. The industry's technological research in precious metals, which has extended over twenty-five years, will be made available to a group of craftsmen for the first time.

Last year Miss Craver was the only American and the only woman invited to attend a similar conference conducted by the Worshipful Company of Goldsmiths in London for British silver and goldsmiths. She has studied under leading contemporary craftsmen including Baron Erik Fleming, Silversmith to King Gustav of Sweden.

At Illinois

Miss Dorothy Grienke, 7 North Maple street, Mt. Prospect, is one of four affiliate nurses who have enrolled in a course in orthopaedic nursing offered by the University of Illinois.

Nurses enrolled in the course will continue their studies until October 28. The course is given in the orthopaedic surgical institute of the University's Research and Educational hospitals in the Chicago Medical Center District. Miss Grienke will receive special training in the treatment of deformities and injuries of the bones, joints, muscles, and nerves. Graduates of the course are qualified for specialized nursing duties.

Miss Grienke received her basic training at Presbyterian hospital, Chicago.

Has 82nd birthday

August 5 Mrs. William Berschet of South State road, Arlington Heights, celebrated her 82nd birthday. Members of her family and close friends and relatives were on hand to make the occasion a happy one for her. A special cake inscribed with "Happy Birthday" was the center of attraction at the luncheon table.

Mrs. Berschet is still very active around the farm, even working in the fields when necessary.

Showered again

Miss Margaret Windheim was guest of honor at another miscellaneous bridal shower last Thursday evening. It was given by her cousin, Mrs. Larry Brockmeyer of Jefferson Park, and the 12 guests were all aunts or cousins of the bride-to-be.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Haas Jr. and family of 218 S. Wille street, returned from a 1250 mile trip around Lake Michigan and stopping off in Canada.

Their first stop was Milwaukee's WTML radio station being entertained by The Grenadiers. They walked off with first prize, erecting a pup-tent competing against another vacationing couple, picked from the audience. After erecting the pup-tent, they were told to crawl inside.

Display artist's work

The remarkable art work of C. H. Michael, formerly of Arlington Heights, and now of Des Plaines, who is an artist and art director, is being displayed in a one man show at the Academy of Applied Art, 39 W. Adams street, Chicago. Those visiting the show will be able to see designs, etchings, and water colors done by Mr. Michael, which went on display July 21 and will be shown until August 30.

Mr. Michael, who graduated from the Arlington Heights high school about 12 years ago, has been studying art and turning out many fine pieces of work for a number of years. His army life during World War II has opened many new doorways of ideas for his paintings, some of which are already on display in the show.

Honored at showers

Miss Marilyn Jonas of Mt. Prospect has been guest of honor at several recent showers. Sunday, August 3, Beverlie Pink and Edith Kunkle were co-hostesses for a personal shower for Miss Jonas which about 30 guests attended. Last Friday about 25 guests watched Marilyn open gifts under a gaily decorated umbrella at a miscellaneous shower given by Grace Mary Schulze, who will be maid of honor at the wedding. Another shower was given Tuesday evening by Penny Russel at her home on State road near Arlington Heights.

Miss Jonas will become the bride of Charles Hansteen of Rockford August 23 at eight o'clock at the South church in Mt. Prospect.

We go to a County Fair. We wander through the bright sunshine and dusty grass and down the streets of booths and flapping tents. We visit the Exhibit Halls. We ogle the colossal fruits and vegetables and the mouthwatering jellies and preserves. We caw and yap shamelessly as two women inspect the quilt which defeated their entries.
We exclaim over massive Percherons and Belgians. In the Hog Pavilion, two old-timers recall the old days and the "Green Pig." We join the audience at the Judging Tent in time to see a rousing battle. We have a hot chicken dinner in the Ladies Aid Tent. We head for the harness races. The trotters thunder away. We scream encouragement. We drink orangeade. We watch the entertainment at intermission.
At night we promenade the Midway. We listen to the bawling pitchmen and hawkers, the medicine man, and the brassy voiced barkers. We watch a flirtation on the merryhave our fortune told. And we give our impressions of the Payment on bonds due Aug. 30

The fifth and final payment, or thirty per centum on Liberty Loan bonds purchased on installments is due on August 30. According to the official statement of terms and conditions of the sale of Liberty Loan bonds issued by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo at the time subscription to the bonds was invited the payments must be made on or before Aug. 30.

Whether the Liberty bonds were purchased from the Treasury or from the Federal Reserve banks or through other banks or agencies it is important that this installment be paid promptly.

Suggest Plum Grove be forest preserve

Several citizens are advocating a second forest preserve in Palatine township. From 200 to 400 acres of Plum Grove would make as pretty a forest preserve as any in Cook county. Few of the people are familiar with the natural beauty spots in the woods south of Palatine.

The board of county commissioners are still buying land and it is their ultimate aim to secure nearly all the woodland tracts in the county until there are 25,000 acres of preserves. Plum Grove lies between Elk Grove and Deer Grove and would form a sort of connecting link between these two places.

Issues second draft call

The local draft board has issued its second call as it is evident that the required 287 cannot be secured from the first list. 750 are asked to report at the office at Des Plaines Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. This action came as a surprise to many of our local people who were congratulating the families on having escaped the first call.

The claims for exemptions are numerous, but the district appeal board has not handed down many decisions and the status of those asking for exemption for vocational and support reasons cannot be learned at this time. Palatine may hold a patriotic meeting in recognition of the boys who will go to camp from here.

Palatine is furnishing more than her share of men for the army compared with Des Plaines and Arlington Heights. Only 17 men from Des Plaines and 16 from the Heights did not claim exemption, while Palatine with less than half these towns, has 15 young men certified for service.

Tales of the STREET

BY I. C. BART

C. DEAN IN FRONT

The name C. Dean is a legend in the harness horse world, dating back to the days when the Charles Dean Sr. training farm at Palatine was the center for the harness horse folks in this part of the country. Charlie Dean and the horses which he drove and made famous were known on the big time and on the county fair circuits.

Such outstanding horses as The Broncho, Minor Heir, Nervola and many others were developed and made famous by him, and he was one of the most popular harness horse drivers in the country during that era.

When Charlie Dean Sr. passed on the name C. Dean did not disappear from the race programs and race results in the harness horse world for young Charlie, "Chase" as everyone called him, carried on where his dad left off. "Chase" was quite some driver as a youngster and he stayed in the game as a trainer and driver keeping the Dean name alive.

"Chase" is still at it and going strong. Along came some clippings the other day from eastern papers giving the results of the harness races at Raceway park, and there was the name of C. Dean as driver and trainer of a horse named Luke Hanover.

Charlie seems to have quite a horse in Luke Hanover for we saw the results of four races where he won four races. In one race he paid off at 37.20, 12.60 and 5.50; in another his price was 9.80, 5.80 and 4.80. In a third race he returned his followers 9.40, 3.50 and 2.40, and in the fourth 17.20, 7.30 and 4.70.

Just how "Chase" gets that kind of payoffs with such a consistent winner is a mystery: evidently the racefans at that track don't believe that he and his Luke Hanover are as good as they really are. But at any rate C. Dean is still showing them how it's done and in keeping up the old Dean tradition of bringing them home in front.

Incidentally, harness horse racing is a major sport and a big business in the east, for the result table shows attendance 13,475, mutual handle $555,410, and on another occasion attendance 11,371, handle $475,665.

MEET GEORGE KENYON

Who in thunder is George Kenyon was a question being asked right and left after that name popped out of the hopper about midnight the last day of the firemen's festival at the winner of the grand prize, an Oldsmobile automobile.

Well, Mr. Kenyon is a Palatine resident and is known to a lot of local people as an all around good fellow. He bowls with the major league. Sometimes he bowls well, sometimes terrible and sometimes inbetween like all the rest of those major bowlers.

He is a golfer, playing a good game of golf according to the boys who play against him. He is also a hunter and fisherman, having one of the most complete outdoor outfits to be found anywhere, and is always interested in anything pertaining to the great outdoors.

For a living he represents a big paint company and his work keeps him busy dashing around the country, but he finds time in between dashes to enjoy his favorite sports. So there you have a sketch of George Kenyon who burst into the public eye in that big prize drawing. He's a local man, a nice fellow to meet and a good fellow to know.

MORE RECORDS

Not satisfied to have already set a whole flock of records so far this year the weather last week had to hang out another one. The first time in 76 years of record keeping by the Chicago weather bureau that the temperature hit 100 or over on three successive days. It surely was a roaster and no mistake.

The corn needed some hot weather, but if that break hadn't come just when it did it would have been about too much even for the corn crop. Some parts of the corn belt report serious damage.

In this area the heavy rains last Thursday morning were a great thing for the corn crop, and if the frost just holds off there will be a corn crop yet.

GOOD YIELDS

The small grain harvest is on full swing and despite the bad spring conditions the farmers are reporting that the oat yield and winter wheat yield are very good.

Emil Straub and August Rohde say yields have been very good and Mr. Straub is encouraged about the looks of the corn following the fine rain. "If we don't have a killing frost in September we'll make a corn crop yet," says Mr. Straub, and a lot of the farmers feel the same way about it.

TOMATO BLIGHT

Some gardeners are complaining that their tomato plants are withering and dying without making any crop. A blight often tomato plants in a freakish year with rainfall extremes, wide temperature ranges. When that sort of thing occurs there just doesn't seem to be anything a gardener can do about it.

A blight caused by climatic conditions just won't yield to any spray or anything else. The plants just don't get the proper nourishment and they go ahead and die in spite of everything.

The blistering sun last week caused considerable damage to tomatoes where there wasn't sufficient circulation of air. The fruits just cooked on the vines, big white blisters appearing on the tomatoes, and those that got blighted of course were the nice big ones that set early and would soon be ready for the table.

HAPPY WINNERS

The Haseman softball team of Palatine captured the second half of the season championship in the Arlington Heights softball league and are now engaged in a play off with the Rose-Lo team, first half champs.

The big satisfaction for the boys was knocking off the Rose-Lo team by a 3 to 2 score in a red hot battle, the Hasemans scoring the winning run in the last inning. Rose-Lo has dominated Arlington softball for many years, and the Hasemans are geared to a high pitch for the play off.

After defeating Rose-Lo the boys just did stay in the race by defeating City Cab 12 to 11 in a wild and wooly game in which they again put over the winning run in the last half of the last inning.

HOW ABOUT A SERIES

With the Hasemans scrapping for the championship of Arlington Heights how about a series for the old timers championship of Palatine? We seem to remem-

In twisted grasses close to the ground? Helpless things are nestled here, Things to a trembling heart so dear.

Western wind, blow softly, blow, Rocking this hammock to and fro;

This is a hammock so deftly wrought,

By peary ropes to grass stems caught;

When I walk by this hammock's stalk,

I walk so gently, that's how I walk;

The one who made this gauzy thing

Must joy to see it hang and swing.

Wind of the east, rain-laden and cool,

Traffic timer to be erected in Park Ridge

Purchase of a four-way traffic timer and other signs in an effort to eliminate traffic law violations was authorized at Park Ridge.

A letter from Police Chief H. W. Johnson was read, in which it was recommended that a four-way timer be placed at the intersection of Busse, Meacham, Touhy and Main St.

Chief Johnson also recommended erection of specific speed signs in certain areas and enforcement of the 20-mile speed limit through additional signs, in the residential district.

ber that way back last fall late in the season the Inverness and Palanols Park boys got together over it a corner of the high school football field one Sunday morning in a game that hardly anyone knew about, and that Palanols walked off with the Palatine championship.

Roy La Londe and some more of the ancient have been threatening all season to challenge Inverness to a game. Stan Pepper says Inverness can beat the "townies" any old time.

Well, how about a three cornered match — Inverness vs. the Old Timers, the winner to play the Palanols team for the championship. Lets have those games this summer sometime and not wait until the snow flies along in the football season.

HOW THEY DO IT

When Long Grove walked off with the water fight championship at the recent festival everyone was asking "How on earth do those boys win all these water fights without any water works and no chance to practice?" Harry Tharp asked if they followed some chart or "form" in arriving at how to do it.

Maybe those lads haven't any water works, but don't get the idea that they don't practice just the same. They have a creek at Long Grove and with no movies to go to and plenty of time in the evenings the boys just take their pumper down to the creek, start it going and have all the water they want to practice with and at the same time they aren't running down the pressure on any water mains.

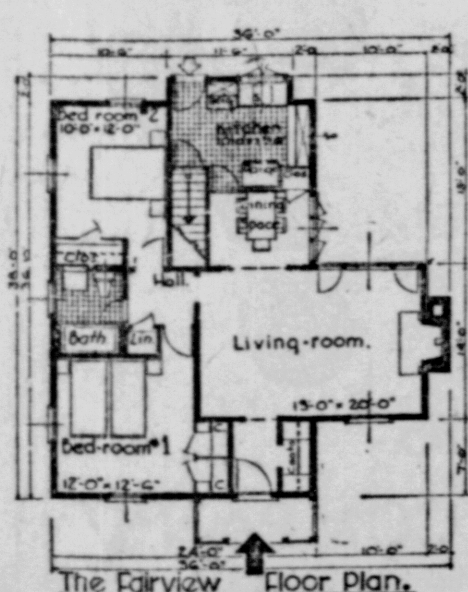

The result of those practice sessions is plainly visible. When there is a firemen's carnival anywhere and water fights are on the program look out for Long Grove and don't get quoting any big odds against them. Even if the little burg hasn't any water system they know their stuff just the same.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Jane:

Have you been longing for one honest-to-goodness spaghetti? And how do you enjoy eating it in a little out-of-the-way place, particularly if you knew its superb sauce of 15 ingredients had been concocted by a love-to-look-at and now famous woman?

If this is what you want you will not hesitate a moment longer to make a reservation for lunch or dinner at Fanny's—601 Simpson street—Evanston.

There is a great deal I do not now about Fanny and her unique establishment, but I did have the privilege of meeting her one day last week, and what I learned about her, her wonderful food, and the people who frequent her restaurant is quite enough to make me enthusiastic.

The story about Fanny, as I understand it, is that reverses in her life time back made it necessary for her to change her mode of living. Luxuries that had been hers vanished, and she went to work. It was about two years ago that she went into the restaurant business in a small corner building near Evanston's "colored" district.

The old adage about the "better mouse trap and the beaten path" has proved itself true once again, for Fanny's fame for delicious food spread rapidly and her customers increased by the hundreds. She now has a helper who cooks the fried chicken, and this succeeded by antipasto (the first course), the spaghetti, the toasted rench bread, slightly flavored with garlic, and ending with the well-known Italian dessert of beaten whites of eggs with warm wine, gives one a never to be forgotten meal!

This same young colored boy who fries the chicken is a crayon artist of no small talent. Mrs. Bianucci (Fanny's married name) said that he is self taught, and judging from the exquisitely drawn nudes she has hung on the walls, he, too, must come in for his share of recognition.

There are all manner of fascinating testimonials to Fanny and her food in letters, pictures, and in her several guest books.

A professor at Northwestern clipped one of Fanny's unusual advertisements from the local Evanston paper, and sent it in to the New Yorker. It was given space in the September 7th, 1946 copy of the magazine. This incident, itself, did a great deal to spread her fame. Later, an artist made a drawing of a supposed New Yorker cover, placing Fanny's column in the center of the page. This is attractively framed and can be seen along with other newspaper clippings hanging on the walls of the tiny restaurant.

I saw numerous pictures of celebrities, but probably the most interesting and surprising collection are the signatures in her guest books. They are by people from all over the world. I remember China, Russia, Brazil, Mexico, Italy, Germany, Trinidad, and

QUESTION: What is the principal cause of receding gums? - J. A.

ANSWER: There are three types of receding gums: The abrasive (a-bray-siv) type, most widespread, is usually caused by improper toothbrushing. The gums recede about the necks of and in addition, horizontal grooves appear on the necks of these teeth. Have your dentist demonstrate for you the correct toothbrushing methods.

The atrophic (a-trow-fick) recession is actually a wasting away of the gums. It is most often found in elderly persons and may prevent the wear of usage throughout a long life. Proper mouth hygiene together with a well-balanced diet helps to forestall atrophic recession and to check it.

Inflammatory (in-flam-ma-tory) recession is accompanied by swollen, inflamed gums. Usually, this condition indicates that the underlying bone is infected. Causing so-called pyorrhea pockets to form about the roots of the teeth. Treatment of the disease which had infected the bone will restore the gum tissues to health but the gums cannot be restored to complete normality.

Use egg bargains in summer menus for light dessert

Summertime brings lower quality and usually lower-cost eggs to market. While many of these summer eggs do not measure up to grade A standards, they are perfectly wholesome food.

Smart homemakers will make use of these bargains for cooking purposes, says Miss Frances Cook, foods specialist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. Of course, it pays to check prices against grade A eggs first to be sure that they really are lower.

When such egg bargains do turn up, however, they can serve from appetizer to dessert. For a dessert that's new and different Miss Cook recommends cheese custard. It's a not-too-sweet dessert that forms an excellent topping for Sunday dinner or a summer party.

CHEESE CUSTARD

- 2 cups cottage cheese
- 2 cups milk
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 3 eggs, well beaten
- Grated rind 1 lemon
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- Cinnamon

Combine cheese and milk; add remaining ingredients, with the exception of cinnamon. Pour the mixture into buttered custard cups or baking dish, sprinkle with cinnamon, set in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) until the custard is set—about 45 minutes.

Lime Lawn

If no lime was applied on the home lawn last year, put some on before the ground thaws in the spring. Use about 50 pounds of ground limestone per 1,000 square feet of lawn.

Carson cow proves a 'guaranteed' animal at Wisconsin fair

Hollywood's famous comedian, Jack Carson, aided and abetted by editor Coe of Whitewater, is furnishing a double-featured cow for the famous milking contest at Wisconsin State Fair August 16-24, that will determine whether Outagamie or Marathon county will reign as "America's Dairyland County" for the coming year.

This remarkable cow is a complete answer to the alibis expected after the contest. "My cow wouldn't give me her milk as quickly as yours," for upon scientific tests she was found to give milk with equal facility from all eight attachments.

By a strange coincidence, the right body is Holstein and the left body Guernsey.

In a statement, Mr. Carson, famous star of stage, screen, and radio, said he would judge the contest, hold the cow, measure the milk, might even challenge the winner and take the title back to Hollywood with him.

The contest will be held in connection with Dairy Day ceremonies in the Coliseum on Friday, August 22, starting at 10:00 a.m.

By request all exhibits at the Wisconsin State Fair will remain open until 11 p.m. with the exception of the Junior Fair building which will close at 10 p.m.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: My wife is in England and I desire to utilize my educational privileges under the GI Bill in attending Oxford University. Is this possible?

Answer: Yes. Many students are attending colleges and universities in various foreign countries under the GI Bill. For further information, address your request to the Veterans Administration and Education Department, Central Office, Washington, D. C.

Question: How long after discharge does a veteran have in which to file a claim for Service-men's Readjustment Allowance?

Answer: A veteran may file a claim for Readjustment Allowance any time within two years after discharge from military or naval service or two years after the end of the war, which ever is later.

Question: I am a veteran and would like to get a Civil Service position in a foreign country, but I do not know where to go for this information. Can you advise me what would be the quickest way of finding out opportunities in this field?

Answer: Your nearest Illinois State Employment Service office will be able to tell you of many such openings and also advise you as to how you can apply for them, as well as the general requirements of these jobs.

Question: I was blinded in both eyes during service, but I want to go to college, although I know it will be difficult if I do not have someone to read material for me. Is there any way I can get a reader for my school work?

Answer: Yes. A reader service now is being provided by the Veterans Administration for blinded war veterans to permit them to attend school by having study material read to them. Those eligible for this service include all enrollees in school under the Veterans Vocational Rehabilitation Act and you should contact your VA for further details on how to meet this aid.

Playing the title role at Lake Zurich will be Gerald E. McGonagill, who has been seen in various roles at the Playhouse for three seasons, including Joe Ferguson in "The Male Animal", Johnathan in "Arsenic and Old Lace", the villain in "East Lynne", and Tom Larcomb in "Fresh Fields". Also in the cast will be Constance Charles, Penny Moran, and Audrey Dineen.

RAMBLE INN
'N OUTINGS

by BILL NORTH
Everyone hears a lot of modern advertising about this and that now days. You hear facts stacked upon promises and promises stacked on guarantees. Now Rumble Inn doesn't usually go in for modern advertising, but if it will bring out the crowd that this event deserves then here goes.

First in the way of facts. The event is that marvelous Moonlight lake cruise on the luxury liner the City of Grand Rapids. The time the buses leave the field house for the Michigan ave. Bridge Pier is 7:00 p. m. The date for this is Tuesday, August 19th. Here is another fact which makes it imperative that all you attend. The almanac says that the moon will be out in all its glory. And here is the most important fact of all. The whole round trip, including bus fare, is only $1.70. This is cheaper than any of you could go down and buy just the cruise ticket alone.

Enough of facts. Now for our claims. We claim that all the facts added up equal one swell night of enjoyment. We claim that dancing to mellow music, gazing into shimmering water reflecting the moon's silvery beams will give you memories and pictures that you will long remember.

What more lucrative promises can we make than to promise you a cool evening breeze to refresh you, a delightful bus ride to lighten your spirit and sparkling entertainment.

And here finally are Rumble Inn's guarantees. We guarantee you a wonderful time. We guarantee that you cannot find any entertainment equal to this at a comparative price. We say that if you are at the field house at 7:00 p. m. on August 19th you will embark on one of the most enjoyable evenings of your life.

There you are. There are Rumble Inn's promises, guarantees, claims, and facts on the Lake Cruise. Mail in those reservation cards to Barbara Tichy, 105 S. Highland ave., Arlington Heights immediately. And then come on out on August 19.

—Y. C.—

According to information recently received, it is tentatively planned to close the swimming pool on or about Labor Day. This means that Rumble Inn

Itasca Man
Injured In 3-Way
Auto Accident

Harold Rittmueller, 701 N. Willow street, Itasca, suffered a broken leg and other cuts and bruises in a three car accident Sunday on Army Trail road of Route 53. The collision sent four others to the Elmhurst hospital.

RITTMUELLER, according to reports was towing a car driven by David Loeb, 61, 1314 Devon avenue, Chicago, when a car driven by Earl C. Schmidt, 19, of Bartlett rammed into the rear of Loeb's car. He was between his car and Loeb's unhooking the bumpers when he saw Schmidt coming. He leaped up on the bumpers and thereby probably saved his own life. Loeb suffered a compound leg fracture, and cuts and bruises. By applying a tourniquet to the leg, which was badly cut Rittmueller also probably saved Loeb's life.

LEONARD Hackmeister and Willard Hackmeister, riding with Schmidt, were both cut with flying glass. The latter escaped without injury although his car was badly smashed up.

Deputies Harold Young and John Albrecht investigated for the sheriff's office.

will probably move back into its old haunt around the latter part of September.

A redecorating party is planned during which everyone who wants will be able to come on down and fix up the decorations the way they want them. This column will carry the exact date of the opening and the date of the party as soon as it is possible.

—Y. C.—

Well school is coming very fast. Just about two more weeks they say. Our vacation's nearly through and past. The summer has nearly flown away. We'll miss old grads this coming year. Friends who've left us, you know. But our graduation is coming near. And we'll soon be the ones who'll go. Yes, high school gave us many pals. Graduation took many away. But the friendship's not dead, just gone away. And we'll find it again some day.

Vows will be spoken at 8 p. m. in St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, St. Peter and Tilton, with Rev. Erwin R. Koch, assisted by Rev. Worry Over
Business Deal
Ends In Suicide

Mrs. Angelina Lato, 47, formerly of Bensenville, took her own life with a .38 caliber revolver early last Friday morning at her home on Lake street, (U. S. 20) across from the Elmhurst airport.

A CORONER'S jury meeting in the afternoon at Geils Chapel in Bensenville where the body was removed, upon investigation declared that she had taken her life while temporarily despondent over ill health and the worry of a real estate transaction.

Her husband, Joseph, testified that he had left the house and gone outside and found her dead on his return. He had heard no shot, he said. Although she had never fired a gun before, she took the revolver, a gift to her husband from his father, loaded it with a cartridge which she found and discharged it into her temple.

THE LATO'S came to this vicinity 14 years ago. They formerly owned a home on 2nd avenue in Bensenville, selling this and moving to California where they bought a place. They had come back recently to close a deal disposing of the property on Lake street, which included a filling station business.

Apparently the transaction had run into some difficulties and there was some danger of financial loss.

Preview of fashions
next month in city

Until now, the big fashion previews were most often staged for those few who could wangle admission in a comparatively small audience. A lady was lucky, indeed, to get a seat at the show. This time, however, a glamorous style performance, featuring latest creations of top dress designers and artistic arrangements of real flowers to enhance them, will be staged the night of Sept. 5 at Medinah Temple, seating 4,000 and located at Ohio Street and Wabash Avenue on Chicago's near north side.

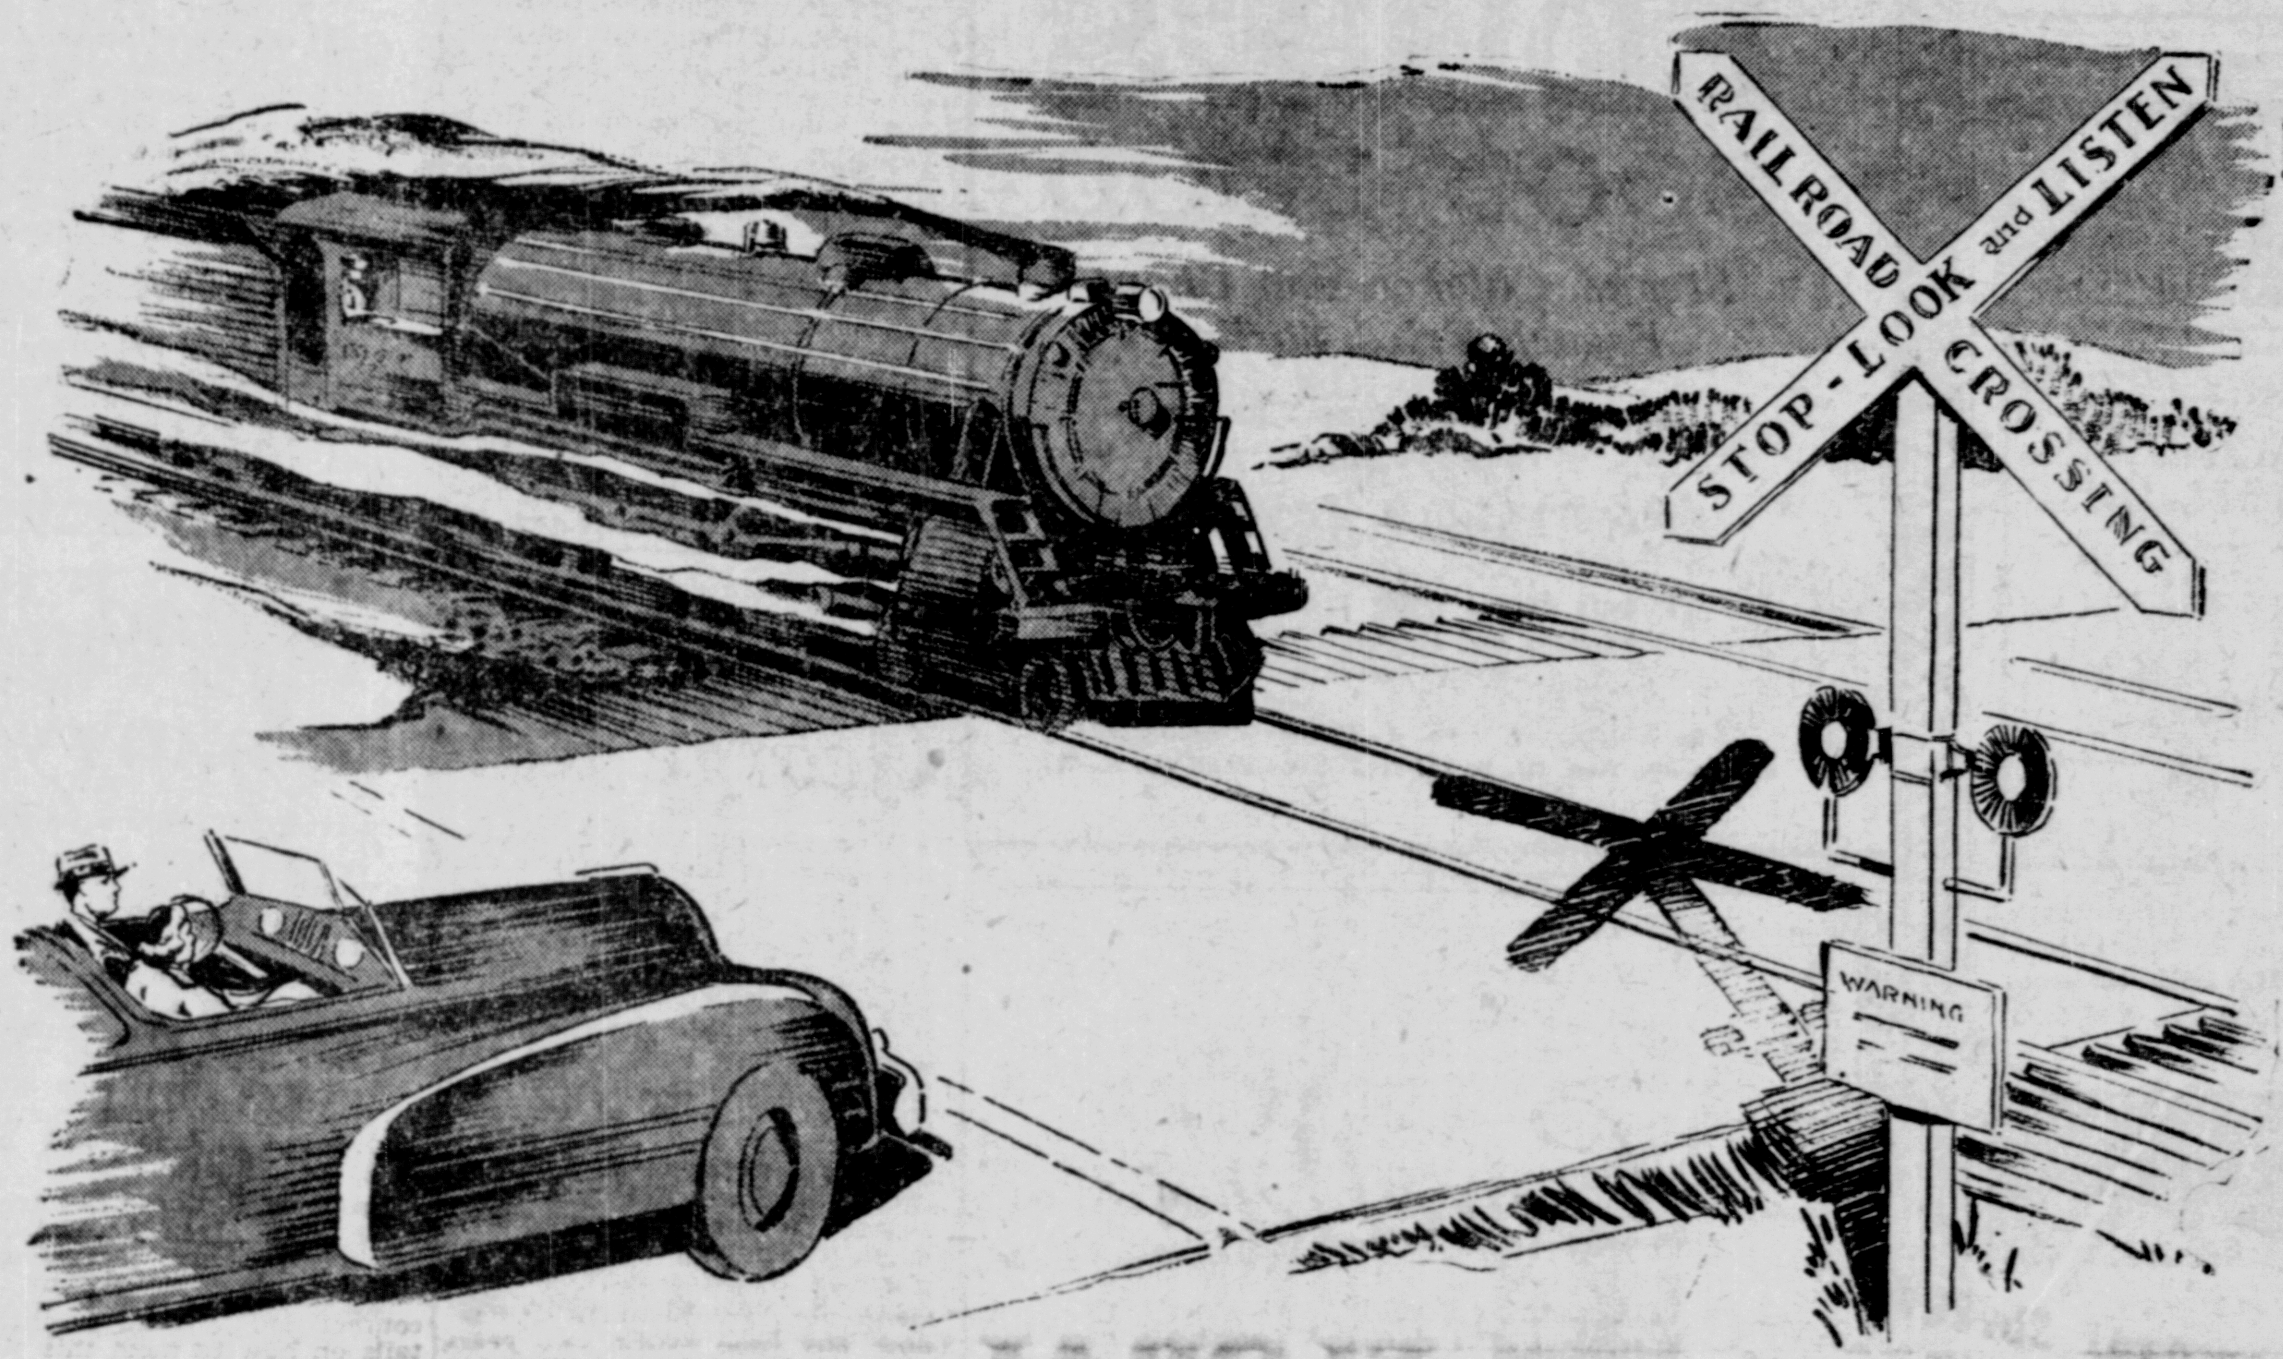

The first fashion show of the Fall season will be a benefit performance sponsored by the Women's board of the Illinois Epilepsy league. As the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association is paying for everything and Marshall Field & Co. are providing the fashion show, the proceeds from the sale of the tickets will go practically undepleted into the funds of the league.

Fashion show tickets, priced at $2.40, $4.80, $6 and $10, can be purchased at Illinois Epilepsy league, room 508, 130 N. Wells street, Chicago, or at flower shop members of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association.

USE CAUTION IN YOUR DRIVING

X MARKS THE SPOT!

Yes—X marks the spot where more than 2,000 people died and over 70,000 were injured last year when automobile drivers challenged the iron horses of the rails—and lost.

When you approach a railroad crossing, you are entering the railroad's right-of-way. To save you from harm, gates are lowered or automatic signalling devices, bells and blinking lights warn of approaching trains. The engineer blows a warning blast, rings his bell. That's the most the railroad can do. The rest is up to you.

The Stop—Look—and Listen sign means what it says. Stop—look both ways—and always listen. If a train is just clearing the crossing, wait—don't hurry across, there may be a hidden train coming from the opposite direction. And when you do cross, keep going. Don't shift gears on the tracks, you may stall.

Take the few extra seconds needed to assure a safe crossing. Don't let X mark the spot where you failed to be careful.

Draft Rejections

An estimated 10 per cent of the men rejected by selective service were disqualified because of cardiovascular diseases (diseases of the heart and blood vessels). In a survey of a special sampling of 5,000 rejectees for cardio-vascular diseases in five major cities—Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, San Francisco — 50 per cent had been disqualified because of rheumatic heart disease. The second greatest cause of rejection due to cardio-vascular diseases was hypertension (high blood pressure).

Weight of Milk
One quart of milk weighs 2.15 pounds. To make a pound of butter 9.77 quarts of milk are required, 4.65 quarts for a pound of cheese.

Gloomy Kitchens
In Grandmother's day kitchens were gloomy things at best. It was the custom to paint everything in dark colors so that the dirt wouldn't show. The idea that a kitchen should be decorative—a thing of beauty—never occurred to her.

Modern Etiquette

1. Is it permissible for a man to guide a girl along the street by her elbow?
2. Is it obligatory to write letters of condolence?
3. What does the bride do with her flowers while the wedding ring is being placed on her finger?
4. What is the correct way to eat corn on the cob?
5. Should a man remove his hat when he meets a woman acquaintance on the street and pauses to talk with her?
6. When signing a hotel register, should a man write "G. H. Hall and wife"?
7. Should a business woman make a practice of shaking hands?
8. Is it permissible to acknowledge a formal invitation in the first person?
9. Isn't it preferable to state the reason for declining an invitation, when the reason is good?
10. Is it permissible to break crackers or bread into soup?
11. When playing tennis or golf, should one admit frankly that he plays the game poorly?
12. Does the bridegroom always kiss the bride at the conclusion of the marriage ceremony?

Answers

1. No; this is a social crudity.

He may take her arm only when crossing traffic-clogged streets or through crowded sections of the walk. 2. Yes; they are obligations of friendship and should not be neglected. They should be brief, sincere, and sympathetic and should not contain affected phrasing. 3. Her maid of honor should hold the flowers during this time. 4. If the whole ear of corn is served, it should be broken in two, using a napkin to protect the hands. Season and eat only two rows of kernels at a time. Only one hand should be used to hold the ear. 5. Certainly, and hold it in his hand while talking, unless the weather is disagreeable. 6. No; write "Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hall." 7. This is entirely optional with her. However, if she is really sincere about making a certain acquaintance, she should always offer her hand. 8. No; as formal invitations are always written in the third person, the acknowledgement should be the same. 9. Yes. It is preferable, though not obligatory. 10. Never. Neither do we blow on the soup to cool it, or tip the dish to get the last drop. 11. Yes, but do not continue to apologize throughout the entire game. By no means pose as a better player than you are. 12. Usually, although this is entirely a matter of sentiment.

Near cancer fund quota goal

The American Cancer Society reported today that on July 31, one month before books are closed on the 1946-47 fiscal year, cancer contributions totaled $11,614,749 exactly $385,251 short of the $12 million goal.
It was the greatest sum ever raised for cancer control. Forty-one of the Society's 59 divisions throughout the nation had exceeded their quotas. Only $10,108,207 was raised during the 1945-46 fiscal year, but that was ten times the amount raised during the preceding year.
"It is impossible to predict at this time whether we will meet our goal," said Elmer Bobst, national campaign chairman. "It all depends upon the collections this month."
Bobst said that while many long their quotas, funds still are being received at the national headquarters of the American Cancer Society, 47 Beaver Street, New York.

HASEMANS VS ROSE-LO FOR SOFTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Palatine squad revives to meet 1st half winners

by OWEN NANGLE
For the first time in the history of the Arlington Heights Softball League an outside team will be challenging the pride of Arlington Heights for the season championship, Rose-Lo, winners of the first half, will represent Arlington Heights while Palatine will be represented by the Haseman team, winners of the second round.

The Arlington league is composed of 5 Arlington teams and two outside squads from smaller Mt. Prospect and Palatine. The league has been in existence for a longer period of time than this writer could trace, having played its original games at the old Northside grade school diamond.

In 1937 and 1938 the Heidorn team won the league championship. 1939 saw the Gaare team pitching chores defeat the Heidorn team for the league championship and in 1940 the St. James C. Y. O. team challenged Gaare's but to no avail. However, in 1941 the Rose-Lo team took over the league championship by dumping the same Gaare team in the playoffs and since then they have retained that prestige. The league was forced to disband during the war years and in 1946 Rose-Lo indicated that they had not lost any of their ability as champions by winning both halves of the split season.

THIS YEAR Rose-Lo went through everything in the league during the first half by winning six straight games on sheer power and good pitching. Bill Becker having pitched every game.

The second half proved quite different. Rose-Lo won their first two games handily but the third game proved to be the back-breaker as Mary Russell pitched a brilliant 2 hit game and his teammates of Benny's Tavern team gave him a 6 run margin to work with. Rose-Lo then came back to hand City Cab their first defeat of the second half 10-2.

Haseman's from Palatine then took the measure of Rose-Lo by setting them down 3-2 on Emmett Doyle's 3 hit pitching.

Quite different from Rose-Lo's impressive record is the Haseman team which finished 6th the 1st half with a miserable record of one win and 5 losses including a 21-3 shellacking by Rose-Lo. The Haseman team added 5 new players and immediately started the 2nd half by winning three straight before running into El Rando who soundly thumped the league leaders 5-1 on the excellent pitching of Pat Mehan and all round hitting of the whole El Rando team.

HASEMAN'S recovered from this defeat by eeking out a 3-2 win over Rose-Lo and then faced City Cab, also tied for first place, in what should have been the game of the second half but which turned out to be a comedy of errors and a brilliant array of hitting power, Haseman's finally emerging the winner 12-11. Haseman's won their finale from Benny's Tavern 7-3 on Harris's 3 run homer and the 4 hit pitching of Emmett Doyle and thus qualified to meet Rose-Lo for the season play-offs for the championship.

Rose-Lo goes into the play-offs as a definite favorite on their past record but this should not stop Haseman's who have been improving as the season progresses.

Bisons football lights ready For Sept. 13

Work on the lighting of Bensenville Community Memorial Athletic Field is progressing rapidly, in order to have the field in working order in time for the fall football season.

THE LIGHTING of this field is sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2149 and Auxiliary. Fund raising activities began in February, 1946, with contributions from individuals and business houses added to the net receipts of various money-making events. The total cost of lighting the field will amount to about $9500. Since all of this amount has not been raised, the V.F.W. and Auxiliary are advancing the necessary amount to complete the work this season.

In order to obtain the best possible field for this community, the high school board and the VFW have co-operated in the planning and, when complete, with bleachers, the total cost will amount to $22,000.

THE GRADING and laying a new fifth mile track, gridiron and softball diamond is now in progress, and is being done under contract let by the school board. The electrical work, for which the veterans are responsible, is being done by the H. & H. Electric company, who have done many of the lighted fields in the Chicago area.

The completed field, which will be formally dedicated to the service men of this community who lost their lives in World War II, will consist of the football field, on which a softball diamond will be superimposed, with the whole surrounded by the track. A cyclone fence, bleachers, and landscaping on the north end of the field, will complete the work, which will be a valuable addition to the entire community. Musical events, as well as athletics, can be accommodated.

William Bishop is the president of the high school board, Lowell Capoot is commander of the VFW Post, and Mrs. Cora Augur is president of the Auxiliary. Francis E. Suter is chairman of the committee which raised the funds for lighting the field.

It is hoped to have the dedication and initial game on or about September 13.

Horse show at Barrington next Sunday, Aug. 24

The 1947 version of the annual Barrington Countryside Horse Show will be held Sunday, Aug. 24, in the Dorville Round Barn Stables, Hawley road, Barrington. Ken Williams, chairman of the show committee, announced that participation will be limited to privately owned horses ridden by amateurs. The general public is invited to witness the show.

Children, parents and grandparents will contest for trophies and ribbons donated by the Ridding Club of Barrington Hills and by the Fox River Valley Hunt Association. The program will feature both riding and exhibition events, with a luncheon intermission at noon.
Brook Fuller will judge all hunting and pleasure classes, and Wayne Dinsmore will judge Palomino and Arabian classes.
This year's affair represents the second postwar running of the show, which last year revived the annual children's horse show held before the war, and extended the events to cover all age groups.

THE MORNING program at Arlington Heights recreational park in handicraft was a big success and ended in the awarding of prizes in three divisions.

The instruction in handicraft was one of the events in the morning program for the youngsters at the park and was divided into midget, junior and intermediate, each group having 45 minutes three days a week.

An average of 25 youngsters participated in the handicraft class work for the past seven weeks working on planned projects and using original ideas for completion of special projects. The work varied according to the age group, the young-

Wheeling Cardinals defeated by Diamond Lake

Wheeling Cardinals defeated Mundelein last week by the score of 8-6, to tie Diamond Lake for second place, only to lose second place to Diamond Lake Sunday, by losing 7-6, in one of the hottest games played in Libertyville.

Wheeling dropped behind in the first inning 4-0. In the sixth they made two runs and four more in the seventh inning to bring the score to 6-4 in favor of Wheeling. A seventh inning rally by Diamond Lake took the game 7-6, and the Cards dropped to third place in the league. The Wheeling boys have a good chance to climb back to second place and intend to give Diamond Lake a battle to hold it. The next game in Libertyville will be Wednesday, August 20, at 7:30 p.m. with the North-Side A. C.

Redwings open tourney stand this Sunday

The Arlington Redwings will encounter trouble in their first midwest playoff tilt when the strong Grand Castle outfit invades Recreation Park Sunday. The visitors have an impressive record of 11 and 3 which is a good indication of the battle that is forthcoming.

Last Sunday the locals drew a first round bye. An intra-squad game was the attraction and just about everything imaginable was seen in the game. The Redwings won over the Cardinals by an overwhelming nine run margin, 12-3.

State offers free programs
to local clubs

Parent - Teacher associations, Women's clubs, men's civic clubs and other community groups which are now planning programs for the coming year today were invited to take advantage of program services available from the Illinois State Library.

The invitation came from Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett, who is State Librarian. He said that program assistance to community groups is included in the work of the library's extension service.

The following programs by State Library personnel were suggested by Mr. Barrett:

1. A resume of the Illinois State Library services available to local libraries, community groups and individuals. This talk emphasizes ways in which local units of government can help extend library services to individuals in their areas.
2. Art talks illustrated by pictures from the library's art collection.
3. Book reviews.
4. "Treasures of the Illinois State Library," a discussion of unusual and rare books and documents in the State Library.
5. Reading Guidance Programs — Parents, Teachers and Children.
6. "How to Set Up Files," a talk of particular interest to business groups.
7. "Establishment and Care of Record Systems," a talk of interest to local officials and business groups.

Clubs seeking these program services, which are free were advised by Mr. Barrett to contact their district libraries, or to write directly to Miss Helene Rogers, Assistant State Librarian, Illinois State Library, Springfield. District libraries are located in the Mercer County court house, Aledo; Legler branch of the Chicago Public Library, 115 South Pulaski Road, Chicago; public library, Pontiac; city hall, Lacon; city hall, Effingham; public library, Mt. Carmel.

Park Ridge pastor helps open Abe Lincoln papers in Washington

"It was one of the greatest experiences of my life—I'm still walking on clouds."

This was the reaction of Dr. George Truman Carl, pastor of Park Ridge Methodist church and renowned authority on Abraham Lincoln, to the opening of the famed Lincoln letters in Washington last week.

A member of a select group of Lincoln historians who were permitted through official credentials to participate in the private opening of the document at 12:01 a. m. Saturday, Dr. Carl said, "It was a regular race to see if one of us could pounce upon some particularly sensational piece of work."

With others of the interested group, Dr. Carl said he had hoped especially that the original manuscript of Lincoln's oft-quoted letter to Mrs. Bixby would be among the papers. "There has always been some doubt in the minds of Lincoln scholars as to its existence," he said.

His greatest thrill, he said came when he first saw the original Emancipation Proclamation. "I thought my heart would stop beating when I saw that manuscript in his own handwriting," he said.

"The second most exciting letter was one written to Dr. Edward Everett telling of Lincoln's acceptance of the invitation to speak at Gettysburg and enclosed a copy of the address," said Dr. Carl.

"As was expected, there was nothing of special sensationalism among the collection," he said.

Cash disbursements from state of Illinois

Cash disbursements by the State of Illinois for all purposes during the month of July totaled $47,779,683.26 and required the writing of 283,971 warrants, final compilations in the office of Arthur C. Lueder, Auditor of Public Accounts, showed.

Disbursements for the maintenance, construction, policing of highways and for expenses incidental to the collection of automobile licenses and motor fuel tax were $3,960,131.39.

Principal and interest on State bonded indebtedness paid during the month amounted to $28,125.00.

Drunken Arlington boy driver calls
tavern keeper to task

The testimony of a 16-year-old Arlington Heights boy has finally given Des Plaines a club in its attempt to stamp out the illegal sale of liquor to minors, known to be going on, but almost impossible to trace, due to the reticence of victims to divulge such information.

The matter came to light last week, Monday morning, when this lad faced the judge on charges of damaging private property at Fourth and Woodlawn avenues, while driving a car while intoxicated. The accident happened about 9 a. m. August 1.

Complaints were signed Monday morning by the father against Mr. George Schmidt, 1112 Prairie avenue, and his son Geo. R. C. Smith of Minneapolis, for selling a bottle of wine to a minor last Friday evening. Mr. Schmidt manages the Eddie's Wine and Liquor store on Center street, and the Smith lad was helping him out at the time the was allowed.

According to state liquor laws, two violations exist in this case—one, for selling a 16 year old boy intoxicating liquors; two, for allowing a minor to work in a liquor store.

Ed. City ordinance prevents ownership of two liquor establishments in Des Plaines. Thus, the city license is issued to Eddie Jensen, former manager of the store, instead of to the real owner, a Mrs. Martoccio, who owns another establishment in the city.

Docs say, 'keep medicine chests clear of bottles'

"Take this prescription to your druggist to be filled," your doctor tells you. And that's all, no information is given to satisfy your curiosity as to what drug or combination of drugs is being prescribed for you.

There's a reason for this, according to a Health Talk issued by the Educational Committee of the Illinois State Medical Society. The doctor writes a prescription for the patient alone. The drug or combination of drugs is not for general use by members of the patient's family or friends. It is planned or devised to meet the condition the doctor has found in one patient and it may be ineffective or even harmful in another person.

A prescription, once filled and used, should be thrown away. The residue should never be saved after the specific purpose for which it was ordered by the physician has been achieved. Some family medicine chests are cluttered with bottles of old prescriptions.

Most are useless because they have lost their potency. In others the solvent or vehicle has evaporated and the remainder has increased its potency relatively so that it may be even dangerous. The condition for which the drug was originally prescribed for the patient has usually been cured, and it is useless. It will not apply to another condition even though symptoms may appear to be the same to an amateur eye.

While many persons can contract the same disease and show much the same symptoms, there to determine an overall cure. is no yardstick that can be used. Each individual is a law unto himself and only the expert can fit treatment to individual disease. It is essential and necessary that a patient must have individual treatment and individual care. Persons with conditions that seem to have been suffered by their friends should remember this. And by the same token, the prescription that has been filled for one person cannot be used for another, even though the ailment might seem to be the same.

Sow thistles on the increase

"A weed found for the first time in Cook county three or four years ago that has increased very rapidly is Sow Thistles," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes.

"Sow thistles do not look like thistles but more like prickly lettuce or wild lettuce—except it has a yellow flower. It can now be seen in many waste places, in out fields, and along road sides. It grows two to five feet high, has a milky exudate and the seeds have down. It is in patches where a stalk matured. The leaves are few on the stems, have small spines, and the leaves have from deep to no scallops.

"Up until this time they have not been bad enough to be noticed—from now on they will be much in evidence. Control is not at all easy. When the yellow blossoms appear they should be cut, and the plants sprayed repeatedly with 2-4-D, or the ground thoroughly cultivated. They are worse than Canadian thistles."

county architect

Appointment of Frank A. McNally of Evanston as county architect was announced by President William N. Erickson of the county board at a board meeting Tuesday. Attorney Andrew J. Dallstrom of Barrington was named to the county zoning board of appeals for five years.

President Erickson said he had "made numerous inquiries" in architectural circles before selecting McNally, who heads the firm of Frank A. McNally and Associates, 105 West Madison street.

Although receiving no salary, the county architect is possibly the best paid county official, receiving six per cent on all contracts completed, and a lesser percent on those designed but not carried through.

McNally is the third Evanston resident named to a key county post by President Erickson, who is himself an Evanstonian. The other two were Fred A. Hertwig, warden of the county hospital, and Alan E. Ashcraft, forest preserve attorney.

Ruth Kleiner, William Wordel in ceremony

Community Camera

The Mt. Prospect St. Paul Lutheran church was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Miss Ruth Kleiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kleiner of Arlington Heights, and Mr. William Wordel, son of Mrs. Frank Seibel of Mt. Prospect. Rev. J. E. A. Mueller performed the double ring ceremony, during which Miss Doris Kline sang "God Gave Me You" and "Be-cause," accompanied at the organ by Elmer Jackisch.

Miss Kleiner was attractively gowned in traditional white satin, fashioned with high neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt. She wore matching mits and carried a bouquet of white roses, with an orchid center. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a tiara of satin roses.

Maid of honor for the bride was Gladys Kleiner, her sister. She wore a light aqua crepe dress, styled with high neckline, cap sleeves, and a draped skirt. Marian Talento and Jo Colletti were the bridesmaids and they were gowned the same as the maid of honor only in yellow crepe. They all carried burgundy gladioli and had matching headpieces.

Judy Kleiner, sister of the bride, and Sharon Lee Karnatz, niece of the bride, acted as flower girls, and were dressed identically to the bridesmaids. Gene Helfogt, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, and wore a summer tux and carried the rings in on a satin pillow. He had a red carnation boutonniere.

The groom was attended by Ed Flesch as best man, with Kenneth Kleiner, brother of the bride, and Walter Gleson acting as ushers. They all wore summer tuxes and had white carnation boutonnieres.

Mrs. Kleiner wore a pearl grey crepe formal and Mrs. Seibel was also attired in a grey formal. Both had orchid corsages.

Three hundred guests attended the reception, which was held at the Mt. Prospect VFW home. A four tier wedding cake decorated the refreshment table. Dancing to the music of Mel Rateike's orchestra was enjoyed by the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wordel are now on a two weeks honeymoon in Minnesota and upon their return they will make their home
